

A map of Africa is shown in a light beige color. Overlaid on the map is a dental file with a multi-colored handle (blue, green, yellow, red) and a silver shaft. The file is positioned vertically, with its tip pointing towards the bottom of the map. To the right of the file, there is a stylized graphic of a tooth, colored with the South African flag's colors (black, yellow, green, red, blue). The text "10TH WORLD ENDODONTIC CONGRESS CAPE TOWN 2016" is written in bold, black, sans-serif font in the upper left corner of the map.
